Find Some Rhymes!

Rhymes are made with word endings that are sometimes spelled alike and that sound alike. They are used to form words that rhyme. These rhyming words become word families.

Frog ends with og and Toad ends with oad. The endings og and oad can be used to form words that rhyme. Read the og and oad words. Then write them in the correct lists.

dog	jog	bullfrog	leapfrog	unload
carload	groundhog	hog	road	railroad
log	load	fog	truckload	workload

Frog

Toad

Extension

Now, write two rhymes using the og and oad words on the Frog Facts and Toad Tales lines on page 29.

Toad's New Bathing Suit

Toad thought he looked funny in his bathing suit, and he didn't want to come out of the river. Design a new bathing suit for Toad that will make him feel happy as he comes out of the river. Then, on the back of the paper, write a paragraph that tells about the new suit and why it will make him feel happy.
