

Instant Words 566-580

store	wild
job	happy
edge	beside
past	gone
sign	sky
record	glass
finished	million
discovered

Sentences to read or write

Put the glass just past the edge.
The sign for the job in the store was gone.
He discovered she was wild and happy.
They finished a million glasses.
She kept a record of the sky colors.

Note: "Record" is a heteronym (two pronunciations and two meanings) as in "phonograph record" (noun), and "record this music" (verb).

Word Study Phonogram "-ast"

past	mast	fast
last	blast	cast

Phonics

Consonant digraph "sh"	show	short shoe	should

Note: This is the last of the consonant digraphs. The other consonant digraphs are "ch"-Lesson 46, "wh"- Lesson 31, and "th"(voiced)-Lesson 12, and "th"(voiceless)-Lesson 29.

Review: Selected Instant Words in Lessons 48, 49, 50, & 51.

Instant Words 1946-1965

football	military
leather	observations
opera	sandwiches
screen	snapped
sweeping	vapor
comfortable	agriculture
compass	announced
dragon	atomic
empire	somewhat
false	tap

Word Study Phonics: Broad "o" sound spelled "a" before "t"

false	fall	always
also	although	talk

Note: The letter "a" before the letter "t" often makes the broad /ô/ sound, but not always, for example, "alone".

Variant forms

footballs	operas
screened screening screens	sweep sweeper
comfortable	sweepers sweeps
compasses	dragons
empires	observation observational
sandwich sandwiched	snap snapping snaps vapors	agricultural
announce announces announcing	tapped tapping taps

Review: Word Study in Lessons 119, 120, & 121.